English translation:

Y: The other thing about Mohammedia is that it is known for its dishes, especially with fish. There are many fish dishes like fried fish, and shellfish like clams and... and like shrimp. We can either fry them, or bake them too, or bake them in an oven. You take tomatoes, cut into circular pieces, and then you take the baking dish and put a little bit of olive oil in it. Then, you take the fish and clean it from the inside, and you can fill it with a mixture of basil, parsley, olive oil and a bit of salt, spices and ginger. You fill the fish and you put it in the baking dish, you put it in the oven and let it cook. These are the dishes... the fish dishes that are well-known in Mohammedia.

About CultureTalk: CultureTalk is produced by the Five College Center for the Study of World Languages and housed on the LangMedia Website. The project provides students of language and culture with samples of people talking about their lives in the languages they use every day. The participants in CultureTalk interviews and discussions are of many different ages and walks of life. They are free to express themselves as they wish. The ideas and opinions presented here are those of the participants.
