English translation:

Interviewer: So, can you tell us what your religion is?

Sara: Christianity.

Interviewer: So you follow Christianity right? So how is Christianity as a religion? What do you do? Tell us about your festivals.

Sara: In terms of festivals, Christians don't celebrate a lot of festivals. They celebrate Christmas. Dashain is not celebrated by many [Christians] though. That's all.

Interviewer: So what do you do on Christmas?

Sara: On Christmas, we celebrate Christmas day. We celebrate Christmas by going to the church for the whole afternoon. We have lots of fun.

Interviewer: Do you go to church every week on days besides Christmas?

Sara: Yes, I go to church.

Interviewer: So is your whole family Christian? Other than that, what do people belonging to Christianity do in Nepal?

Sara: In Christian religion, in Nepal (hesitates)... What do I say? Now it is good for people who follow Christian religion, right? Previously, Hindu religion was more... but now even if you are Christian, it is good for you.

Interviewer: So do you know how many churches are there in Kathmandu?

Sara: How many churches—it is hard to know. There are a lot.

Interviewer: Oh! So there are many?

Sara: Yes, there are many.

Interviewer: Well then, thank you!
