English translation:

S: What is... what is the role or rather the importance of the woman in the Saharawi society?

Woman: It can be said that it is certain that the Saharawi woman is the main pillar that the Saharawi society depends on. Since about 1973, the woman has been the main support and continues to be so for the country today. She fought, sacrificed, resisted and she even gave up her own children... all of this and she did not say anything. She resisted and continues to resist until the day she feels that she is in her homeland; it is then when she would demand certain rights. But for now and with the situation she is in, she considers it part of her daily life and she is resisting and continues to resist until she obtains her aim.
