English translation:

Shaharзад: Jalal, can you fly kites?

Jalal: Yes.

Shaharзад: Do you like kites?

Jalal: Yes.

Shaharзад: Kites, what kind of kites do you like?

Jalal: Plastic ones. I like the paper ones too.

Shaharзад: Okay. Then do they make the plastic and paper kites in all shapes, for example animal shapes?

Jalal: No.

Shaharзад: They make it all in this one shape?

Jalal: Yes...this one shape.

Shaharзад: What about drawing, do they draw animals, stars and everything on it?

Jalal: Yes, they do.

Shaharзад: Okay. Can you make kites yourself?

Jalal: No, I can't.

Shaharзад: Why not?

Jalal: When the stick (wood) is not available, I can't. I can make it if the special stick is there.

Shaharзад: Okay, so you can make it if you have the stick. How should a good kite be?

Jalal: It shouldn't have pand. It should be without pand.

Shaharзад: Okay. So it should be balanced in both sides.

Jalal: Yes.

---

Shaharзад: Don't take it through the flower plants.

Jalal: Should I release it? Should I release it? [The kite will fly once he releases it. He should release it when it is in the right angle and wind is blowing.]

Mohib: No, go back, go.

Zubaida: Go further.

Jalal: I will release it.

Zubaida: Ha ha ha.

[The kite flies.]

About CultureTalk: CultureTalk is produced by the Five College Center for the Study of World Languages and housed on the LangMedia Website. The project provides students of language and culture with samples of people talking about their lives in the languages they use everyday. The participants in CultureTalk interviews and discussions are of many different ages and walks of life. They are free to express themselves as they wish. The ideas and opinions presented here are those of the participants.
