Birds, Greenery and a Disappearing Car

Man 1: Oh brother, do you know? In our village, next to the riverside, there are many bideshi pakhi, i.e. foreign birds.

Man 2: Like what? What type of birds?

Girl 1: What birds?

Man 1: The birds are this big [making a motion with his hands].

Girl 1: What color are they?

Man 1: They are brown in color. [Khoiri color.]

Girl 1: Oh, brown. Are they pretty?

Man 1: Yes, very pretty color, and they come in flocks, in large flocks.

Man 2: What are the birds called?

Man 1: I don't really know the name of the birds, but I know that they are foreign birds. The birds are very pretty and when they are flying in large flocks it looks really pretty. It is a truly magnificent sight.

[All three laugh.]

Man 1: Shorgo, when did you arrive from Canada?

Man 2: Oh, it has been around three weeks.

Man 1: Do you like Canada more or Bangladesh more?

Man 2: I like both Canada and Bangladesh.

Man 1: What do you like in Bangladesh?

[All three laugh.]

Girl 1: What I like in Bangladesh...why aren't you asking me?

Man 1: Okay, fine -- tell me.

Girl 1: Don't be formal with me, speak in casual language.

Man 1: Okay, fine -- tell me.

Girl 1: I didn't ask you to say in that way. What I like most in Bangladesh...I like my house. Then...I don't really like Dhaka city. I like the other districts in Bangladesh more.

Man 1: Oh, the village, the greenery.

Girl 1: Yes, the greenery, the farms.

Man 1: Clear and green....

Man 2: No pollution...

Girl 1: Yes, the clean air.

Man 1: You know, there is a word, something and fauna....

Girl 1: Flora and fauna.

Man 1: Yes, flora and fauna. Flowers, etc. Do you like jackfruit?

Girl 1: Jackfruit has a strong odor. I like eating mango.

Man 1: But when they cook jackfruit seeds with chicken, it tastes very, very good.

Girl 1: No, not just that.

Man 1: With some spices.

Girl 1: They also cook vegetables with it.

Man 1: Yes, they also cook it with vegetables.

Girl 1: The cuisine here is very good.

Man 2: Yes, jackfruit is our national fruit.

Girl 1: Yes, our national fruit. Can you tell me the name of our national animal?

Man 1: Doyel [magpie]?

Girl 1: National animal.

Man 1: Oh! Royal Bengal Tiger.

Girl 1: Yes, doyel is a bird. Oh...all this is....

Girl 1: So what did you do today?

Man 1: So the entire day since morning has been very exciting -- do you understand? So I woke up in the morning and the chauffeur comes to my room and tells me that my car has vanished.

Girl 1: Aaahhh, Allah.

Man 2: Vanished?

Man 1: I mean the car just disappeared from the parking lot.

Man 2: What are you saying?

Man 1: Just vanished.

Man 2: What are you saying...?

Man 1: So I ran out. I live in Japan Garden City. A lot of security.

Girl 1: Where is that?

Man 1: Very safe.

Man 2: That area is actually not safe at all.

Man 1: There are many terrorists....

Girl 1: What is that area called?

Man 1: Shyamoli.

Girl 1: Oh, okay.

Man 1: It is next to Mohammedpur. Then I went to the police station, then to RAB, Rapid Action Battalion. They are like SWAT, do you understand. Very high....

Girl 1: What does RAB do?

Man 1: RAB is rapid action, if anything happens, they can work very quickly.

Girl 1: You mean [they are] very efficient?

Man 1: Yes, very efficient.

Man 2: They are a very extreme....

Girl 1: Force.

Man 1: Yes, force.

Man 2: No, they are good for the country.

Man 1: Yes.... Then I went all over the place, but with the state of the country at the moment with the election so near... I think mostly cars are being stolen nowadays....

Girl 1: Yes, I also went to wedding that day. My driver said that a car got stolen from the parking lot there. I remembered you then.

Man 1: But that happened many days ago...

[All three laugh.]

Man 1: From here, you can understand that people from Bangladesh can make up a lot of stories.

Girl 1: That's true... this is a very good example.
