Dancing at a Aswan Wedding

Explanation:

This video is taken in Aswan, one of the most beautiful cities in Egypt. It is a mixed wedding, where the bride and her friends and the groom and his friends dance together. The wedding party started at 10:00 p.m., and it lasted until 3:00 a.m. Usually, weddings in Aswan are very late. They start and end at a late hour.

About CultureTalk: CultureTalk is produced by the Five College Center for the Study of World Languages and housed on the LangMedia Website. The project provides students of language and culture with samples of people talking about their lives in the languages they use every day. The participants in CultureTalk interviews and discussions are of many different ages and walks of life. They are free to express themselves as they wish. The ideas and opinions presented here are those of the participants. Inclusion in CultureTalk does not represent endorsement of these ideas or opinions by the Five College Center for the Study of World Languages, Five Colleges, Incorporated, or any of its member institutions: Amherst College, Hampshire College, Mount Holyoke College, Smith College and the University of Massachusetts at Amherst.
