English translation:

Ahmed: My dear and beloved friends...from...where are we? hhhhh... from the Publishing Department at the university. We greet you and present for you your brother Ahmed...I am attending a course by force [meaning he has to attend it]; “your brother is forced, not a hero”<sup>1</sup>. It’s very hot here. The temperature is about 40 C. Correct? 40... yes, but I was just making sure, I mean...

Naglaa: Now speak, talk.

Ahmed: Of course, I’m very happy because of the hot weather, honestly.

Naglaa: Very happy.

Ahmed: No, no, by God, seriously, by God. The companionship is very beautiful despite the hot weather, but certainly what make it nice is the beautiful friends, I mean frankly, although I don’t see anything cold, any Pepsi or water, not even a Bon Bon... hhhh.
Aaa, by God, I wished...please go ahead and record with us.

<sup>1</sup> Arabic proverb that implies having to do something, not voluntarily doing it.
