

Explanation:

The dress accessories on Turkmen women's dresses come from very ancient times. All the dress accessories on a woman's dress used to weigh about 30 pounds. Modern women put them on only for special occasions. The woman in the video is a professional carpet weaver, and she weaves carpets with her hands. All the ornaments are specific to the tribes and have different shapes accordingly. The decorations usually have different valuable stones in them with different colors.

About CultureTalk: CultureTalk is produced by the Five College Center for the Study of World Languages and housed on the LangMedia Website. The project provides students of language and culture with samples of people talking about their lives in the languages they use everyday. The participants in CultureTalk interviews and discussions are of many different ages and walks of life. They are free to express themselves as they wish. The ideas and opinions presented here are those of the participants. Inclusion in CultureTalk does not represent endorsement of these ideas or opinions by the Five College Center for the Study of World Languages, Five Colleges, Incorporated, or any of its member institutions: Amherst College, Hampshire College, Mount Holyoke College, Smith College and the University of Massachusetts at Amherst.
