

Swahili transcript:

Kama nilivyosema kwamba kabila la wamasai wao wana taratibu zao na hasa katika suala zima la mavazi, kama vile ambavyo mtaweza kuona hii picha iliyopo katika hii nguo, huyu ni mwanamke wa kimasai, na mnaona jinsi alivyovaa, na huu ndio urembo ambao wanavaa. Kwa hiyo wako tofauti ona jinsi wanavyopendeza, kwa hiyo ni kivutio kikubwa na ndio maana hata picha zao pia huwa zinachorwa katika hizi blauzi na watalii wengi wanapotembelea Tanzania wanapenda kununua nguo hizi ambazo zina picha pia za wamasai.

English translation:

As I said earlier, the Masai tribe has its own tradition, especially in fashion, as you can see by this picture on my t-shirt. This is a Masai woman, and you can see the way she has dressed herself. These are the decorations they wear. So they look different. See how good they look. Masai people are very attractive, especially to tourists. That is why you find their pictures on these shirts. When tourists come to visit Tanzania, they like to buy clothes which have pictures of the Masai on them.

About CultureTalk: CultureTalk is produced by the Five College Center for the Study of World Languages and housed on the LangMedia Website. The project provides students of language and culture with samples of people talking about their lives in the languages they use everyday. The participants in CultureTalk interviews and discussions are of many different ages and walks of life. They are free to express themselves as they wish. The ideas and opinions presented here are those of the participants. Inclusion in CultureTalk does not represent endorsement of these ideas or opinions by the Five College Center for the Study of World Languages, Five Colleges, Incorporated, or any of its member institutions: Amherst College, Hampshire College, Mount Holyoke College, Smith College and the University of Massachusetts at Amherst.
