

Thoughts on Young Women's Fashion

English translation:

Girls wear clothes...usually clothes that are unacceptable; more revealing. Those are the ones [clothes] that we haven't really accepted. So most of the times they will be wearing clothes that are...the covered parts are less than the uncovered parts.<sup>1</sup>

Boy: What kind of clothing is that? Are they the ones dzinogumira padzinotangira?<sup>2</sup>

Girl: Those ones [clothes]. Even the way they conduct themselves, how they approach other people, you discover that... most of them, their cultural values are slightly low because they ignore the fact that there are elders around so some actions are improper. Most of them even forget to greet people before doing anything else. I cannot falsely claim that all "salads" disregard our cultural values, but there is a problem in that most "salads" forsake our cultural values as they try to cling to the English culture.

About CultureTalk: CultureTalk is produced by the Five College Center for the Study of World Languages and housed on the LangMedia Website. The project provides students of language and culture with samples of people talking about their lives in the languages they use every day. The participants in CultureTalk interviews and discussions are of many different ages and walks of life. They are free to express themselves as they wish. The ideas and opinions presented here are those of the participants. Inclusion in CultureTalk does not represent endorsement of these ideas or opinions by the Five College Center for the Study of World Languages, Five Colleges, Incorporated, or any of its member institutions: Amherst College, Hampshire College, Mount Holyoke College, Smith College and the University of Massachusetts at Amherst.
