

Weekends at Boarding School

English translation:

Weekends, we also had study time in the morning from 8-10, after that we would then do other weekend activities. So, the time that was free (Holy Cross is close to a township with shops), we would get free time to go off boundary on Saturday for, probably two hours—that was the only time allowed to go out Saturday afternoon. We would go get to buy stuff we needed and play games such as slug, also known as table soccer, it was a favorite pastime. Others would listen to music while some would play snooker but all that had to fit within two hours because by 2:00 we had to be back at school. So, on Saturday to pass time, many dorms would plan sports competition, for example, Dorm Eight would play Dorm Twelve and we would do.

About CultureTalk: CultureTalk is produced by the Five College Center for the Study of World Languages and housed on the LangMedia Website. The project provides students of language and culture with samples of people talking about their lives in the languages they use every day. The participants in CultureTalk interviews and discussions are of many different ages and walks of life. They are free to express themselves as they wish. The ideas and opinions presented here are those of the participants. Inclusion in CultureTalk does not represent endorsement of these ideas or opinions by the Five College Center for the Study of World Languages, Five Colleges, Incorporated, or any of its member institutions: Amherst College, Hampshire College, Mount Holyoke College, Smith College and the University of Massachusetts at Amherst.
