In the hospital

- Excuse me doctor, may I come in?
- Of course, of course. Come in!
- How do you do?
- Hello? Come on in, sit down! What is your complaint?
- A-ah, dear doctor, my head is hurting, my head...
- Let's see. Show me your tongue... Okay, good. Now take the thermometer, we'll measure your temperature... Do you have a cough?
- No, I don't.
- Do you sleep well at night?
- Yes. I sleep well at night.
- Do you have a good appetite?
- No, not really...
- Ok, let's check your thermometer. Your temperature is not high at all. It's about 37 degrees. Well... here is a prescription for you – don't smoke, don't drink alcohol, and work out.
- Ok. Thank you, goodbye doctor.
- Take care.
