I'm getting married

- Has something happened? You are in really good mood?
- Yes, I'm getting married.
- I'm glad for you. Be happy! When is your wedding?
- In two months, July 11th. I hope you are coming.
- Of course, God willing. Actually, I guessed that much, but was waiting for you to mention it.
- I'm sorry. I just wanted to make sure that everything is done and then talk about it.
