

Maşgalam

- Bagyşlaň, meniň adym Aman Amanowıç. E-e-e sizing adyňyz näme?
- Meniň adym Boris, atamyň ady Ivan, familiyam Petrow.
- Boris aga, sizing maşgalaňyz ulymy?
- Ýok meniň maşgalam uly däl.
- Siziň maşgalaňyzda näçe adam bar?
- Meniň maşgalamda dört adam bar.
- Dört adammy, Boris aga?
- Hawa, dört adam.
- Näçe çagaňyz bar?
- Iki çagam bar. Gyzym Walentina. Ol mugallym. Oglum Walentin- infener. Aýalym Mariya Fedorovna- pensioner.
- Siz pensionermi?
- Ýok, men pensioner däl. Men işleýärim.
- Siz nirede işleýärsiňiz, Boris aga.
- Men zavodda işleýärim...
- Sag boluň, Boris aga!

Family

- Excuse me, my name is Aman Amanovich. A-a-a what's your name?
- My name is Boris, my father's name is Ivan, and my last name is Petrov.
- Mr. Boris, is your family big?
- No, it is not.
- How many people are in your family?
- Four people.
- Four people, Mr. Boris?
- Yes, four people.

- How many kids do you have?
- Two. My daughter Valentina, she is a teacher. My son Valentin- engineer. My wife's name is Mariya Fedorovna- she has retired.
- Have you?
- No, I have not. I work.
- Where do you work, Boris aga*?
- I work at the factory
- Thank you very much Boris aga.

Aga* is a term of respect somewhere between the formality of "Sir" and the informality of "brother."