The taxi drive

- Taxi, taxi.
- Hello auntie, where are you going?
- Hello son, hello. How are you doing?
- Well, thank you. How about you?
- Well, thank you. We are well. Take me to the airport, my dear boy.
- Okay, auntie. Put your luggage into the trunk. Is it okay? Well, get in then, please sit down... Where are you flying to?

- My boy, I have to go to Mary. My daughter lives in Mary, and she just had a baby. I thought I would see my grandson and come back.
- Congratulations auntie. Let him live a long life, and be a happy man.
- Thank you very much my son. Thank you. How much do I owe you for the ride?
- 10 thousand manat will be fine. Thank you auntie. Have a good trip.
- Thank you, my son.
